Children can bring their letter for Santa to the Mayor's Christmas Tree Lighting to put in the "Santa Express" Mailbox.

Copies of the book are available at the library. Our discussion leader is Trish Reeves.

Snow Flower and the Secret Fan by Lisa See

In nineteenth-century China, a girl named Lily, at the tender age of seven, is paired with a laotong, an "old same", in an emotional match that will last a lifetime. The laotong, Snow Flower, introduces herself by sending Lily a silk fan on which she's written a poem in nu shu, a unique language that Chinese women created in order to communicate in secret, away from the influence of men. As the years pass, Lily and Snow Flower send messages on the fan and compose stories on handkerchiefs, reaching out of isolation to share their hopes, dreams, and accomplishments. Together they endure the agony of foot binding and reflect upon their arranged marriages, their loneliness, and the joys and tragedies of motherhood. The two find solace in their friendship, developing a bond that keeps their spirits alive. But when a misunderstanding arises, their relationship suddenly threatens to tear apart. Please join us for our discussion. You may bring a snack to share if you wish. Copies of the book are available at the library.

Johnny Carino's at Legends

Join us for our Twenties n' Thirties book discussion of The Haunting of Hill House by Shirley Jackson. A tale of subtle, psychological terror, it has earned its place as one of the most significant haunted house stories of the ages.

Four seekers arrive at a notoriously unfriendly place called Hill House: Dr. Montague, an occult scholar looking for solid evidence of a "haunting"; Theodora, his lighthearted assistant; Eleanor, a friendless, fragile young woman well acquainted with poltergeists; and Luke, the future heir of Hill House. At first, their stay seems destined to be merely a spooky encounter with inexplicable phenomena. But Hill House is gathering its powers - and soon it will choose one of them to make its own.

We'll meet at 7:00 pm at Johnny Carino's at Legends. Order drinks, have dinner, or just snack on some appetizers. The book is available at the front desk at the library. Since we meet at a restaurant just let us know if you'd like to attend (even if you haven't read the book). Contact Amy at the library if you have any questions.
