

Barn Quilt Class

2 Sessions available

Saturday, October 7 @ 9:00 am-1:00 pm OR

Sunday, October 8 @ 1:00-5:00 pm

Cost: $20 per person

Come join the fun and create your own barn quilt!

A barn quilt is a large piece of wood that is painted to look like a quilt block which is then attached to the side of a barn, garage, house, fence or wherever you choose. When several people in an area put up barn quilts, they often publish routes or "quilt barn trails" so visitors can admire all the works of art. Even though the name implies an entire quilt is painted onto the wood, it generally is only a single quilt block.

Instructor, Tammy VanTuyl will provide all the supplies. Participants will learn about patterns and techniques and will leave the class with a finished 2' x 2' barn quilt ready for display. Class size is limited. Registration and pre-payment are required. Registration deadline for this class is Thursday, October 5th. Older children welcome when accompanied by an adult.

Fall Bus Trip to Topeka, KS

Tuesday, October 17th

Bus departs at 9:00 am & returns at 5:30 pm

Cost: $15 per person, does not include lunch

Join us as we travel back in time by air and by train!

Our first stop will be the Combat Air Museum, which has served as an educational institution and tourism destination for close to forty years, located on an active airfield. On display are 38 military aircraft, from WWI to the present day, in addition to multiple displays of missiles, rockets, aircraft engines, artifacts and dioramas.

After lunch (on your own) at Banjo's Café, we will enjoy a short stop at Topeka's First Presbyterian Church, which is the site of a unique and breathtaking presentation of 10 world-renowned Tiffany and Company Windows.

Our final stop will be the Great Overland Station. Formerly home to the Union Pacific Railroad Station, the Great Overland Station is a museum and education center that brings Topeka's railroad heritage to life through photographs, special exhibits, and costumed docents.

Registration and pre-payment are required and the deadline is Friday, October 13th.

Basketball for Moms

Wednesday, October 25 @ 6:30-7:30 pm

Are you new to the game of basketball? Maybe you have a child who plays, but you still have questions about the game. Our own BLHS Basketball Coach Jason Tatkenhorst will teach the class. He'll explain the basics of basketball: terminology, positions, rules, common plays and scoring. It's all for fun (and you don't have to be a mom to attend.) Registration is required.

We Are Closed: Monday, October 9th (Staff In-Service)

HOURS: Mon-Thurs 9am-8pm © Fri-Sat 9am-5pm © Sun 1pm-5pm

The Summer Before the War

by Helen Simonson

The bestselling author of Major Pettigrew's Last Stand returns with a breathtaking novel of love set in a small English town on the eve of World War I. Join us for this very special TEBC. We will be Skyping live with the author, Ms. Simonson! Copies of the book are available at the library.

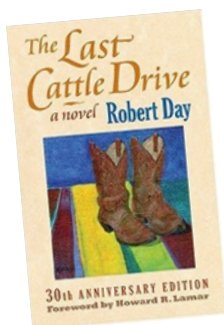

Book TALK

Friday, November 3 @ 10:00 am

The Last Cattle Drive by Robert Day

A Kansas Humanities Council program. Our fall series is "Westering" and the final book in the series is The Last Cattle Drive by Robert Day.

A modern day Western classic, this is a raucous, rollicking novel about a cattle drive in the age of the automobile. Spangler Star Tuckle, a cantankerous rancher, and his no-nonsense wife Opal defy the truckers and drive their cattle to market on a hilarious journey from western Kansas to the Kansas City stockyards. Our discussion leader will be Dr. Jim Hoy, professor of English and the Director of the Center for Great Plains Studies at Emporia State University. Copies of the book are available at the library. Please join us.

Master Gardener Talk: Winter Sowing

Wednesday, October 11 @ 7:00 pm

Don't have space or sunny windows to grow your spring seedlings? Mikey Stafford will show how anyone can grow their own seedlings with just a little outside space with "winter sowing". Anyone can do it and you can start as early as January. Please join us.

Master Food: Gluten Free Choices

Tuesday, October 24 @ 6:00 pm

What is gluten? What foods have it? Why do some people avoid gluten? Linda Suttlehan, K-State Extension certified Master Food volunteer, will help you sort through it all. Learn to read food labels to identify gluten-containing products and sample some gluten free foods.

Final Friday Computer Class

Friday, October 27 @ 10:00 am-12:00 pm

Fear not the computer! The class is aimed at all skill levels and will be presented at a relaxed pace. Topics addressed will be based on your questions. The library has some fantastic tools to help you learn to master your computer. Let us share them with you!

Registration required.

20's & 30's

Books n' Beverages Book Club

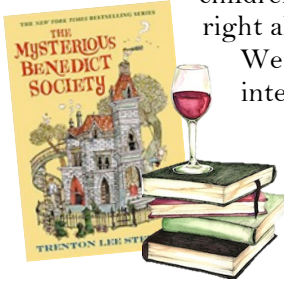

Thursday, October 12 @ 7:00 pm

Red Lobster at the Legends

Join us for our Twenties n' Thirties book discussion of The Mysterious Benedict Society by Trenton Lee Stewart, a delightful read filled with clever riddles, twists and memorable characters.

"ARE YOU A GIFTED CHILD LOOKING FOR SPECIAL OPPORTUNITIES?" It's this very news article that attracts children from across the country to take a series of intricate tests (and you, dear reader, can test your wits right alongside them). In the end, only four children succeed - Reynie Muldoon, Sticky Washington, Kate Wetherall and Constance Contraire. Their challenge: to go on a secret mission that only the most intelligent and resourceful children could complete.

We'll meet at 7:00 pm at Red Lobster at the Legends. Order drinks, have dinner, or just snack on some appetizers. The book is available at the front desk at the library. Since we meet at a restaurant just let us know if you'd like to attend (even if you haven't read the book). Contact Amy at the library if you have any questions.

2nd-5th Grade

Welcome to Camp Construct! LEGO

Robotics & littleBits together for the first time! This program features hands-on activities using the color-

coded littleBits modules that snap together magnetically to create a simple, inventive project in seconds. With LEGO Robotics WeDo, using LEGOs, working motors and sensors along with computer programming, your creation comes alive with motion and sound.

Each camper gets to experience LEGO Robotics, littleBits and "just plain LEGOs". This camp is for any 2nd-5th Grader, beginner or advanced, it does not matter. Miss Vickey and

Mr. Patrick will teach you the basics or help you with the next level. Registration begins Thursday, October 12th.

Special Interest

Brown Bag Film Screenings:

"In Light of Reverence"

Wednesday, October 18 @ Noon

Come to our once-a-month Brown Bag Film Screenings!

Brown Bag Films combines a short film documentary and discussion over the lunch hour. The PBS POV documentary In the Light of Reverence is a 2001 documentary

featuring three tribal nations - The Hopi, Winnemem

Winut, and the Lakota Sious - and their struggles to protect three sacred sights. The sights have become sources of controversy over differing ideas of how to use the land,

as sacred, spiritual centers or open for economic development and recreation.

Please bring your lunch; the library will provide drinks.

FRIENDS NEWS

Friends Need Friends!!! Consider helping the library by becoming a Friend. National Friends of the Library Week is October 15th-21st.

in part by the Friends). We'll provide the popcorn, candy and beverages. This is a 16 years and

older event, open to MEMBERS

ONLY. You can join at the door.

Feel free to bring a comfy blanket

or pillow!

Community Events at the Library

Hunter Education

Wednesday evening, October 11th & all day Saturday, October 14th

This is the last class in 2017. Please watch in early 2018 for more Hunter Education.

The Basehor Community Library partners with the Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism to offer state certified hunter education taught by Steve and Marsha Letcher. The class is held in two parts to insure the mandatory 10 hours of instruction. Please go to the website for more information and registration:

<http://safehunters.com>. The class is free and students must be 11 years of age or older to enroll.

Community Outreach from the Council on Aging

Thursday, October 19 • Drop by between 9:00-10:00 am

A staff member from the Leavenworth County Council on Aging will be at the library to answer your questions regarding services available to any person 60 or older regardless of income. No appointment necessary. For more information, contact the Council on Aging at (913) 684-0777.

Prescription Drug Take Back

Saturday, October 28 @ 10:00 am-2:00 pm

The Basehor Police Department and the Basehor Library are partnering to offer a Take Back event to help you properly dispose of unwanted medication. Unused or expired medications are a public safety issue, leading to accidental poisoning, overdose, and abuse. Please bring your unneeded prescriptions or over-the-counter medications to the library for safe, responsible destruction in this DEA sponsored take back program. All medications will be accepted, human or veterinary. No questions asked.

Food Drive

October through December

The 4-Winds Mahjongg group is sponsoring a food drive at the library to benefit BLAS. Please donate non-perishable food items and personal care products. Special needs at this time are: canned chicken, tuna, cereal (hot and cold), shampoo, toilet paper, deodorant, crackers, soup, boxed potatoes, hamburger helper and kid's snacks. Place your items in the blue bucket inside the library or drop them off at the drive-up window. Please make sure your food donations are not beyond their expiration date.

Thanks so much!

No Mahjongg on Monday, October 9th

Special Mahjongg Workshop

Friday, October 6 @ 1:00-3:00 pm

Cost: $5.00

Mahjongg is not your typical "party game" like Bunko or Mexican Train. Similar to Rummikub, Bridge or Dominoes, Mahjongg is a challenging game of strategy, sprinkled with a bit of competition!

The regular Mahjongg games are dedicated to knowledgeable players. Would you like to learn the game or refresh your skills? Our personal Mahjongg maven Suzie Fehseke will be offering a workshop in October. Come and learn the game so you can join the play on Mondays and/or Fridays here at the library. And bring a friend! The more the merrier. This will be the last workshop this year! So, don't delay.

Registration is required. Please call or stop by the library to register. A learning packet will be provided for you to take home.

Coming in November

The Step-by-Step Approach to an Organized Life

This is the first of a 4 part series helping you tackle your organization dilemmas one step at a time.

The Myths of Multitasking (or Why Single-Tasking is Smart)

Wednesday, November 1 @ 6:30 pm

Now days it seems you can't call yourself productive if you're not a good multitasker, but is multitasking even possible? In this presentation Sheri Steed of Step-by-Step Design will explore the myths and consequences of multitasking, which include decreased productivity and a reduced ability to focus. In addition, we'll look at what makes single tasking more effective and how to break free of the ever-increasing temptation to 'multitask'. The class is free, but registration is required.

Festive Holiday Cocktail Hour

A Demonstration and Tasting Class

Friday, November 3 @ 6:30-8:30 pm

Cost: $10 per person

Let us help take the stress out of planning holiday parties! In this educational and fun class, guests will learn the basics of holiday cocktail creations they can make at home. A licensed bartender will demonstrate how making a mixed drink can be fun and accessible. A small sample of each drink will be offered.

Enjoy appetizers while we share tips and suggestions on how to plan your party so you can relax with your guests. You will leave the cocktail party feeling confident and ready for your next holiday gathering. Recipes will be available for all drinks and appetizers served.

Must be 21 years of age to attend. Registration and pre-payment are required. Registration deadline is Wednesday, November 1st.

Coming in December
