

Understanding Medicare Part D

Saturday, October 5 @ 10:00 am

Holly Gripka, pharmacist and owner of The Medicine Store in Basehor will be hosting a free presentation at the library to help you better understand the complexity of Medicare Part D. For 2020 coverage, open enrollment will run from October 15 until December 7. During the annual enrollment period (AEP) you can make changes to various aspects of your coverage. So now is the time to compare plans and make sure you have the right health and prescription drug coverage for you. See if you could benefit before open enrollment ends! Registration is encouraged.

Art Night Out with Liz Daniel Decoupage Spell Book

Thursday, October 17 @ 6:00 – 8:00 pm
Cost: $20

Design your own magic spell book. We will be using spooky goodies and decoupage to create a display worthy spell book. Just in time for Halloween!

This program is geared for adults; older children are welcome but must be accompanied by an adult. All supplies will be provided. Class size is limited. Prepayment is required at time of registration. Register at the library front desk or by calling (913) 724-2828.

Drawing and Painting Skillshare Monday, October 21 @ 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

We are starting a new art group where people can gather together to create. Watercolors, or pencil and ink drawings – all are welcome. We can grow and benefit from learning, sharing, painting and drawing together.

There will be no instructor. The library will not supply any materials. But rather we are offering a space and a time for you to create. Bring your own project or ideas. Or start something new. We will have a few prompts if you need help getting started. This is your opportunity to create in the company of other artists. Join us in a relaxed setting for good conversation and sharing of ideas and projects. All levels welcome. Drop by for any class, no need to register. Class time is 10:00 am to roughly noon. Feel free to leave when you are finished. GET INSPIRED!!!

Magpie Murders by Anthony Horowitz

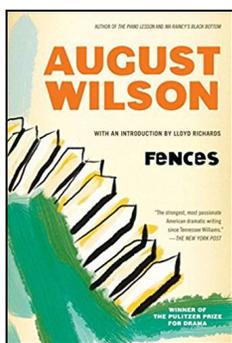

After working with bestselling crime writer Alan Conway for years, editor Susan Ryeland is intimately familiar with his detective, Atticus Pünd, who solves mysteries in sleepy English villages. His traditional formula has proved hugely successful, so successful that Susan must continue to put up with his troubling behavior if she wants to keep her job. Conway's latest tale involves a murder at Pye Hall, with dead bodies and a host of intriguing suspects.

But the more Susan reads, the more she's convinced that there is another story hidden in the pages of the manuscript: one of real-life jealousy, greed, ruthless ambition, and murder. "Magpie Murders is a double puzzle for puzzle fans." New York Times. Copies of the book are available at the library. Please join us.

Book T.A.L.K. (Talk About Literature in Kansas)

Friday, October 11, 10:00 a.m.

The second book in our "Between Fences" series is the screenplay Fences by August Wilson, a Pulitzer and Tony award winning play. The play tells the story of Troy Maxson, a strong man, a hard man. He has had to be to survive. He has gone through life in an America where to be proud and black is to face pressures that could crush a man, body and soul. But as the 1950's yield to the 1960's, a new spirit of liberation is changing the world. Troy is dealing with it the only way he can and this new spirit is making him a stranger, angry and afraid. A modern classic, Fences deals with the difficult theme of race in America during the Civil Rights Movement. Our discussion leader will be Deborah Peterson. Copies of the play are available at the library.

20's & 30's

Books n' Beverages Book Club

Thursday, October 10 @ 7:00 pm

We're Meeting at the Library!

The city of San Francisco is being stalked by a huge shaved vampyre cat named Chet, and only I, Abby Normal, and my manga-haired love monkey stand between the ravenous monster and a bloody massacre of the general public.

Whoa. And this is a love story?

Yup. 'Cept there's no whining. But there is everybody's favorite undead couple, Tommy and Jody, who've just escaped from imprisonment in a bronze statue. And now that they're out they've joined forces with Abby, her boyfriend Steve, the frozen-turkey-bowling Safeway crew, the Emperor of San Francisco and his trusty dogs Lazarus and Bummer, gay Goth guy Jared, and SF's finest Cavuto and Rivera to hunt big cat and save the city. Really.

Join us for our Books n' Beverages book discussion of "Bite Me" by Christopher Moore.

We're having a potluck and a Q&A session with the author after the book discussion, so bring a dish you'd like to share. The book is available at the front desk at the library. Contact Amy @ the Library if you have any questions.
